

SERVICE BOARD ORDER WILL BE FOUGHT IN COURT

Allied Edison Companies Pave
Way by Asking for a Rehearing.

The interests allied in the Edison companies of New York and Brooklyn are planning to fight out in the courts their protests against the orders of the Public Service Commission, issued on Dec. 10 last, compelling the electric light and power companies of New York to publish tariffs and rates and cease from all discrimination.

Save for the several Edison and allied companies all have accepted and agreed to the terms of the order. Today the Commission gave a rehearing to the three companies who had not accepted, viz., the New York Edison Company, the United Electric Light and Power Company and the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, of Brooklyn. Affidavits, objections and denunciations to the order of the Commission were filed. It is generally believed that this was done not so much with the hope that the Commission will rescind the action, but so that they will have a proper basis upon which to go into court.

"This statement was given out today by the New York Edison Company."

"The New York Edison Company has no objection whatever to the fullest publicity in regard to all its rates and forms of contract, so that the public shall have complete and exact information as to the service supplied by the company and the conditions under which it is rendered."

"An important part of the company's business is concerned with large buildings or groups of buildings, for which 'wholesale' or 'supply in bulk' is provided, and these wholesale contracts are largely the result of individual personal canvass and negotiation. It would be a serious obstacle in securing this business if a mere modification would not in any way affect the rate or the cost of the service to the customer."

"The New York Edison Company feels that it should not be precluded from extending to its customers any convenience or facility which the special conditions of supply may make practicable, always provided that they do not in any way modify the cost to the consumer, and provided, also, that the company must be prepared to extend the same privileges to every customer under like conditions."

"To prevent a reasonable and proper latitude in its contracts would result in placing a serious obstacle in the way of the development of the company, and on which its ability to extend further advantages to the small consumer largely depends."

BOYS FORM LIFE CHAIN. SAVE DROWNING SKATER.

By forming a human life chain two boys to-day saved Clifford McMaster, of White Plains, from drowning. McMaster was skating near the north shore of the lake at that place when he struck "rubber" ice and then went through an air hole. As he came to the surface his cries for help attracted Acton Schellings and Raymond Barrett, two twelve-year-old lads of White Plains, who were some distance away. They skated rapidly toward the drowning boy, although the ice was cracking beneath them. Barrett laid down on the ice and worked his way toward the hole, while Schellings, who also lay on the ice, held fast to his feet. Barrett caught hold of McMaster's hair as he was going down and dragged him out just in time to save his life.

FACTS ABOUT COFFEE

Why It Should Be Thoroughly
Roasted and Immediately
Excluded From the Air.

True quality in any coffee lies in its richness in certain oils and essences, which can only be developed through proper roasting. Roasting is therefore a most crucial operation, as by insufficient roasting much of the delightful aroma of coffee is lost, and it is neither agreeable to the palate nor exhilarating in its influence. Furthermore, no other food product is so susceptible to foreign influences as coffee in the roasted state, and to realize its perfect condition it should be instantly excluded from the air.

The coffee that best typifies all of these higher states of perfection is the Hotel Astor Coffee. Hotel Astor Coffee is blended from the finest grades of properly roasted coffee, carefully cleaned, thoroughly roasted by an exact and scientific process and instantly packed for family use in hermetically sealed one and three pound tins. It is the same coffee in every respect as that served now and always at the famous Hotel Astor, New York, and possesses a delicious fragrance and fine, rich, real coffee taste that easily distinguishes it from all other coffees.

Buy a tin of Hotel Astor Coffee today. Its delightful flavor and splendid strength-sustaining qualities will surprise you.

RIKER'S BRUSHES

Few things one has to buy are more deceptive than brushes. So far as appearance goes, the price on a stock of brushes could all be changed around and the ordinary buyer would be none the wiser till he used the brush long enough to test its wearing qualities. Hence so many people go to an expensive store for brushes just to be absolutely sure of their quality. That's where they make a big mistake, for the nearest Riker Drug Store would give them the lowest price and an absolute guarantee on quality as well. Our Brush Specialties are made by Kent, of England; Loonen, of France; Howard, of America.
